

Gregory Hosier

Dr. Hosier is an assistant professor in the Section of Urology at the University of Manitoba. His clinical practice and research are focused on endourology, including US-guided PCNL, advanced laparoscopy, and holmium laser enucleation of prostate. He completed an endourology and laparoscopy fellowship at the University of California, San Francisco. He completed medical school and an MSc at Dalhousie University, followed by a urology residency at Queen's University.