

Paul Martin

Dr. Martin is a community urologist in Sarnia, Ontario, where he is the Chief of Urology and an adjunct professor with Western University. He practices general urology, and a large part of his practice is BPH. He is on the Board of Directors of the Canadian Urological Association and is a member of the Executive of the Royal College Examination Committee for Urology.